Spanish Word Face Mobile

Materials

- brightly colored construction paper or poster board
- hanger
- hole punch
- pencil
- scissors
- string
- yarn

Directions

1. Using brightly colored paper, trace the designs from the next page onto poster board or construction paper and cut them out.
2. Choosing from the word list below, write the Spanish word for the matching body part on one side of the paper. On the other side, write the English word for that same part.
3. Fold down the tabs over the hanger and tape them to the back of the face to secure it to the hanger. Punch a hole in the top of the ears, eyes, mouth, and nose. Then hang each with string from a coat hanger to make a cheerful face that will help you learn the Spanish words.
4. You can add color to the mobile by covering the hanger with yarn.

Word List

ear—oreja eye—ojo

hair—pelo head—cabeza

mouth—boca nose—nariz

Extension Activity

Play “Simon Says” in Spanish.

1. “Simon says” is Simón dice (see-moan´ dee´-say) in Spanish.
2. “Touch” is toca (toe´-ka) in Spanish
3. The names of the body parts require articles.

la cabeza (ka-bay´-sa)
la nariz (nar-eez´)

el ojo (oh´-ho)
la boca (bo´-ka)

el pelo (pay´-low)
la oreja (o-ray´-ha)

4. An example of the game might be:

Simón dice toca la cabeza.
Simon dice toca el ojo.
Simon dice toca la nariz.
Toca la oreja.

The children touch their heads.
The children touch their eyes.
The children touch their noses.
The children should not touch anything,
because you did not say “Simon dice.”
