

Leadership

What makes a community a good place to live? Is it safe? Are there places to work? Does it have good schools and parks? It takes leadership to make a community strong.

Good leaders know how important schools are to the community.

A Tough Job

Being a mayor is not easy. A mayor leads during good times, but must also be ready to take control during hard times.

Sometimes a mayor has to take charge during an emergency.